The rise and fall of a champion

— the Mike Tyson story

The most bizarre story in heavyweight boxing history — the rise and fall of Mike Tyson: he came out of the ghetto to win the richest prize in sport, the Heavyweight Championship of the World, and ended a convicted rapist.

The Mike Tyson Story charts the Iron Man's achievements, from troubled childhood to historic first victory, his very public divorce from actress Robin Givens, to his controversial defeat by James 'Buster' Douglas in 1990.

His reputation and career now in ruins, Sky Sports look at the life and times of the boxer who became the youngest ever heavyweight champion. Incorporating rare footage from the Bill Cayton boxing library in New York, this compelling 90-minute documentary will be screened on Sunday 5th April, at 8pm, only on Sky Sports.

...for the Sky News election special

Though smart money rides on 9th April, three things are certain, the General Election will be this year, it will be one of the closest in recent history, and it will be the biggest home news event in the three-year history of Sky News, which will be covering election day itself and the expected three-week campaign.

Election '92 on Sky News will be transmitted continuously live, starting with coverage of the three main national parties' early morning press conferences. Sky News will also bring you exclusive live coverage of some of the minor parties' press conferences and Party Election Broadcasts such as Plaid Cymru, the Scottish Nationalists and the Ulster Unionists.

The channel's comprehensive coverage of the election will also include daily phone-in programmes which will provide viewers with the opportunity to quiz politicians on the single issues which will dominate each day's campaigning; daytime coverage will bring you news from the election participants as they roam on the hustings.

The channel's early evening current affairs programme, Newsline, will present a half-hour panel discussion each week night at 6.30pm. On Tuesdays and Fridays at 8.30pm there will be special election editions of Target.

The evening bulletins of Sky World News Tonight will reflect on the day's campaigning, as well as crossing to many of the evening speeches made by party leaders. Later editions of the programme will carry results of the opinion polls being published in the following mornings's newspapers.

Switch on to Sky News for the most comprehensive coverage of what promises to be a most engaging contest.

Adult Channel to launch

HVC HAS JUST announced the launch of a revolutionary new channel which will broadcast nightly for four hours starting from midnight.

As its name suggests, The Adult Channel is designed for adults only and will complement HVC, which will now concentrate on action and adventure, horror, comedy, fantasy and sci-fi.

Films of a more erotic nature, which have up until now been seen on HVC, will move to the new channel.

The Adult Channel is also planning to show many new programmes, and will be visiting most cable areas during the year to record special shows and competitions in local nightclubs.

So keep an eye out for details of these special local events in your area. ■

Clear Sky for Francis

CYNICS GIVE WEATHER forecasting as much credence as astrology. But 'Weather's the weather,' explains Sky News weatherman Francis Wilson, late of the BBC. There's only one way it will work out, and you can't do a lot about it.'

Francis joined Sky News Sunrise in February after 10 years on the BBC's Breakfast Time. Before that he was at the Met Office after graduating in Physics from London's Imperial College.

'I soon realised the civil servant mentality wasn't for me,' he says. 'When I joined in the 1970s it was very colonial, very officer's mess, so I left and went to telly.'

But he shrugs off any suggestion that money was the big attraction in his recent move. 'Multi-channel television is clearly where TV will go in foreseeable years, and I thought it would be good to be in that boat.'

That's the kind of forecast Cable viewers want to hear! ■

▶▶ Sky News: Sky News Sunrise Every day at 5.00am and 6.00am ◀◀

READY, WILLING AND CABLE!

Cable surges ahead

Despite the recession, cable television has grown over the last year.

According to Jon Davey, the Independent Television Commission's Director of Cable, the latest figures contain three landmarks.

'First, homes connected to broadband cable have now topped a quarter of a million, with a net increase of 10,000 homes a month during 1991. Secondly, the average take-up rate has now reached 20 per cent from 18 per cent a year ago.

'Thirdly, for the first time, subscribers to the new broadband franchises exceed those to old upgraded systems and SMATV systems and now comprise a majority of cable viewers in the UK.'

The total number of homes connected to cable by January 1992 was 490,000, compared to 422,000 the year before.

Good sports

Eurosport, the pan-European sports channel, claims to be Europe's fastest growing TV network.

It now reaches 30 million homes across Europe, following successful agreements with cable operators in major cities. Vienna, with 315,000 subscribers recently joined Eurosport's growing potential audience, followed by Bern and Zurich with a total of 500,000 subscribers. France's three main cable operators have chosen to show Eurosport, adding 500,000 subscribers, and in Belgium a further 200,000 can receive the channel.

Eurosport's potential audience for its blanket coverage of the Winter Olympics was a staggering 90 million. ■

Marcus is right up your E Street!

E Street has given Neighbours the big E, it has a host of new stars and it arrives on Sky One this month. Headline-grabbing Marcus Graham tells Cable Guide *what the fuss is all about...

HE'S GOOD-LOOKING, unattached and plays a vulnerable young man in the most popular show on Australian TV. Apart from that, there's no reason why Marcus Graham should be the greatest new heart-throb to hit British screens this year.

The 28-year-old star was originally asked to do only a guest role on E Street, Sky One's new smash-hit soap import.

'There was such a strong public reaction to my part, with the TV station getting a lot of phone calls, that I was asked back,' Marcus says.

'E Street really started to take off then.'

The drama, which follows a mix of characters in an Australian suburb, has since left Neighbours trailing in the ratings to become the number-one viewers' choice.

'E Street is set in a part of town called Westside,' says Marcus. 'It has a wrong-side-of-the-tracks feel about it.

'The characters are different from the kind you get in soaps like Neighbours. My character is a guy in a wheelchair.'

The question is, can the love and affection of a fine woman rehabilitate him?

Marcus's character becomes known as Wheels, a former roadie for a rock band who is drunkenly unloading equipment one night when he is hit by a passing car.

He is told he won't walk again. He becomes bitter and reclusive, living in a squat.

That is until he encounters Lisa (Alyssa-Jane Cook). 'Lisa breaks down his bitterness and helps him through,' says Marcus.

Sky One: E Street Mondays to Fridays 1.00pm repeated 6.30pm (starts Sunday 5th 8.00pm)

It is a part that has won Marcus many admirers. 'It was my first commercial break. Yeah, I get a bit of fan mail now. The press label you sex symbol, hunk and all that. Hunk of what?' he laughs.

He is always recognised when he goes to his home town of Perth, which is much smaller than his present home city of Sydney. 'That makes going home very stressful.'Marcus was once romantically attached to Australian film star Nicole Kidman, now Mrs Tom Cruise. Like her, he has big-screen ambitions.

He hopes to enhance his box-office bankability with E Street and go on to make and write films. 'I did E Street for three months and then I took a break to do some theatre, A Midsummer Night's Dream, and a mini-series with Jason Donovan called Shadows of the Heart, which I think the BBC will show.'

Marcus is now working with a writer on a film script. 'I'm trying to write a bit. I had a fairly poor education but I've got a good imagination,' he says modestly. As for the script: 'You could call it a rebel movie.'

He definitely will not be taking that other well-trodden route to superstardom used by soap celebrities — pop music. 'I'll leave that to the people who can do it,' he laughs. Robin Jarossi ■

Watch out for...

Feisty barmaid LISA BENNETT (above left) Played by Alyssa-Jane Cook: 'I've always seemed to play girls who've had a bit of get up and go, so it was good getting the role of Lisa as it felt familiar to me.'

Streetwise Reverend BOB BROWN Played by Tony Martin: 'Reverend Bob has a message to get across to society. I can relate to his views as he's dealing with issues that happen today.'

Strong-minded Dr ELLY FIELDING Played by Penny Cook: 'I find the role very appealing. She's a single mother and a career woman who has to juggle the two.'

VIDEOTYPES

We asked MTV VJ Simone to name her Top (and Bottom) hit videos

Simone's Favourite Videos

① John Lennon • Imagine •'My hero, the best song ever written. Gives me the shivers!'
② Madness •House of Fun •'Shows how funny and mad British people are – love it!'
③ Peter Gabriel • Sledgehammer • 'Probably on every body's list, a classic.'
④ Niagara • All of them! • 'French, very original and creative.'
⑤ Prodigy • Everybody in the Place • 'Great dancing, mad ravers!'
⑥ Jamie Principle • You're All I've Waited For • 'Very outrageous video. Full of tranvestites – go for it Jamie!'
⑦ EMF • Unbelievable • 'Simple but full of energy. Puts me in a good mood.'
⑧ The Cure • Lullaby • 'TOP!'
⑨ Sinead O'Connor • Nothing Compares 2 U & Troy • 'Her emotions and feelings are so real and touching, in songwriting as well as acting.'
⑩ Army of Lovers • Crucified • 'Great style, very original and funny.'

Simone's Least Favourite Videos

① Crystal Waters • Gypsy Woman •'Boring. Looks cheap and Crystal looks fed up.'
② Michael Jackson • Black and White • 'Couldn't they make something more original with such a huge amount of money?'
③ Roxette • Anything! •'Again, too mainstream and unoriginal for me.'
④ New Kids on the Block • Tonight •'Sorry, but I just can't stand guys in cycling shorts dancing like lunatics to a slow song, terribly wrong in this video.'
⑤ The Bouncer • Kicks Like a Mule • 'Great song, bad cheap video. I met the Bouncers from the video, they really are nasty and horrble.'
⑥ The KLF • Last Train to Transcentral • 'So annoying, especially the Wooo Wooo!!'
⑦ Janet Jackson • Alright • 'Again too expensive and too horrible for words.'
⑧ Zucchero & Paul Young • Without a Woman • 'Boring. A bad translation of the song as well.'

Queen Tribute

Freddie Mercury, the outrageous frontman of the legendary Queen, continues to be saluted and missed by the pop world.
On 20 April the remaining band members will reform for the first time since Freddie's death to perform a tribute, along with mega-stars Elton John, George Michael, Guns'N'Roses and Extreme. # Win a mountain bike!

To celebrate its 21st anniversary, Friends of the Earth is inviting thousands of supporters to join its birthday party, Bike To The Future '92.

Over two weekends in May, four sponsored bike rides will take place in stately homes near Stockport, Coventry, Bristol and London, all aimed at raising as much money as possible to help Friends of the Earth.

The Children's Channel's weekend presenter Michael Winsor will be joining in, and there will also be a special festival with comedy, music and loads of famous celebrities.

On top of that TCC is giving away a fabulous mountain bike from Universal Cycles, plus ten Bike To The Future caps, along with lots of other TCC goodies.

All you have to do to enter is answer this simple question:

Q What environmentally friendly programme can be seen on TCC every weekday from Tuesday 7th at 7.15 am and 3.30pm?

Answers on a postcard, please, to:
Bike To The Future Competition
The Children's Channel
9 - 13 Grape Street
London WC2H 8DR

Super Mario IV

Super Mario Brothers 4 hits the shops next month, but you can join in the fun now on The Children's Channel.

TCC is showing the cartoon series of Super Mario Brothers 4, where once again you can see Mario and Luigi, the brave Brooklyn plumbers, facing the wrath of the villainous Koopa clan.

When there's a damsel in distress, especially if it's the perky Princess Toadstool, the lovable brothers will drop everything, even Mario's favourite pasta dish, to come to her aid and save the Mushroom Kingdom. You never know, you may pick up some useful hints if you watch this show.

And that's not all. Specially for Super Mario fans, TCC is having a second showing of Super mario 3 for half-term. ■

Slimy character

Twenty years ago, long before environmental issues became fashionable, the comic-book hero Swamp Thing was born.

'Swampy' was once a brilliant scientist with a great respect for the environment. But now he is something else. Part-man part-plant, he is dependent for his existence on the natural elements that nourish all green things, a mysterious cross between a monster and a super hero who, as Guardian of the Earth, acts as an environmental early warning system.

Swampy answers distress calls from his best friends Delbert and JT, whenever they get into danger trying to help people in trouble or protect the environment from unscupulous characters who would despoil it.

The five-part mini-series starts by revealing Swamp Thing's roots, and continues with Swampy's attempts to foil Dr Arcane's plans for stealing a nuclear satellite, enslaving Amazonian Indians and holding the fabled Fountain of Youth to ransom. Episode 4, To Live Forever, has a particulary topical message as Swampy is held captive in New Orleans, where the pollution that permeates the city threatens his very life. ■

JOHN WAYNE AMERICAN

Your replica will be mounted for display on a wall rack, fitted with brass pistol mounts and accented with enamelled insignia of all five American military services. Display shown smaller than actual size of 14¼" x 12⅜".

The Wayne family authorises a classic to honour the man and the country he loved.

HE WAS ONE OF A KIND.
Loved and respected around the world as the symbol of America at its best.

In more than 150 films, from Sands of Iwo Jima to The Green Berets to The Longest Day, he captured America's essence, strength, values and purpose.

In 1979, he became one of the few Americans ever awarded a Congressional Medal for service to the nation.

Now, John Wayne's family has authorised a dramatic new tribute. A precisely detailed re-creation of the .45 calibre automatic pistol he carried in so many great films.

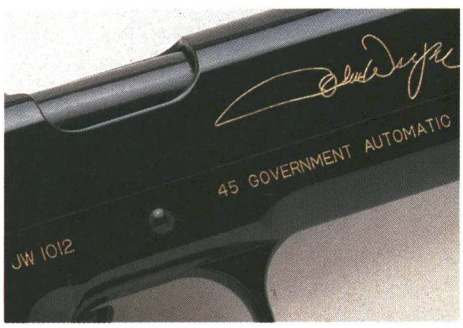
It's distinctive, satisfying and absolutely safe. In the tradition of the very finest display replicas it allows neither the chambering nor firing of ammunition.

It too, is one of a kind. Forever distinguished by your personal serial number. Priced at just £295 payable in convenient monthly instalments.

Celebrate the Legend.

You need only post the attached order form promptly.

©1992 Franklin Mint Limited, Bromley Road, London SE6 2XG.
Company registered in England no. 357382.



Your replica will bear both John Wayne's signature and your own personalised "JW" serial number.

It's a Euro-knockout! Screensport's £5 million boxing roadshow is being cheered in packed venues across Europe. And viewers are getting an early ringside sighting of the man top heavyweights may have to be wary of, Herbie Hide . . .

NO PLACE TO HIDE!

THE WORD AMONG Barry Hearn's trainers and fighters is that Frank Bruno and Lennox Lewis should occasionally look over their shoulders. A young man from Norwich might one day flatten their world title dreams.

Viewers tuning into Screensport's Pro Box on Tuesday nights will have already glimpsed Herbie Hide. And a glimpse is usually all they get. His opponents do not often last very long.

'We haven't yet seen the best of Herbie Hide,' says Screensport's resident commentator and former world super-flyweight challenger Jim McDonnell.

Screensport:
Pro Box Tuesdays 9.00pm

'Everything he has been asked to do in the ring so far he has done. Herbie will be worth following.'

Pro Box is giving fight fans a rare chance to follow young developing talents like Hide in Britain and Europe.

In January Screensport announced that it had signed an agreement with Barry Hearn's boxing promotions group, Matchroom, to extend their partnership by producing Europe's only weekly live boxing show.

They will now be broadcasting more than 1000 hours of UK and Continental fights over three years in a deal worth £5 million.

Viewers discovered world champion Chris Eubank in his early bouts on Pro Box when the show was first screened in 1989.

Barry Hearn says of the new deal: 'Pro Box has taken European boxing by storm with its live shows and the depth of talent on display. Over the next three years our relationship will continue to bear fruit with more young fighters coming through for shots at world titles.'

HERBIE HIDE
Age: 20
Weight: 14st7lb
Fights: 16
Wins: 16
Knockouts: 5
Title: WBC International
Trainer: Freddie King
Next fight is on Pro Box on Tuesday 21st

And this is where Hide comes in. He's had 16 straight wins but his advisers are now looking for worthwhile opponents after he embarrassingly outclassed bloated American Percell Davis in 1min 10sec in March.

Jim McDonnell points out that up-and-coming talents need careful management. 'I wouldn't like to see Herbie go into the deep end too soon,' he says.

'People talk about him fighting Lewis and Bruno but there is no value in that at this stage of Herbie's career. He can pick his opponents as he goes along. He's a great talent who is in no rush. Herbie has to be nurtured.

'A boxer's career can be all over in one fight. You have to look long term at what Herbie is capable of earning. In this division you talking crazy amounts – $50 million! For Herbie to ruin it in one fight, through ego or anything else, would be crazy.'■

Sunday best

APRIL MARKS two momentous events in modern cricket: the return of South Africa to Test match cricket and the arrival of Durham in England's Sunday League – the only first-class appointment in 71 years.

The 1992 Sunday League Championship starts on Sunday 19th with the first appearance of Durham playing host to Lancashire at their newly appointed county ground. Although Lancashire were runners-up last season, record three-time winners in the tournament's history and also hold the record for the most titles in the Nat West Trophy, Durham have signed up several experienced faces, including Ian Botham and Aussie batsman Dean Jones.

Meanwhile, in the West Indies South Africa embark on their first major overseas tour since the start of the cultural boycott 21 years ago. For much of that time the West Indies were the most vocal opponents of South Africa's return, but times have changed, and after competing in their first-ever World Cup, South Africa has moved on for a Test and one-day Tour.■

'I smoke. I drink. I like a bit of fun'

With the chance to see all four days of the Augusta Masters on Screensport, here's a look at winning it the Woosie way . . .

PLAYING GOLF the Ian Woosnam way is a joy to every Saturday morning hacker. 'I just stand there and hit it,' says the Welsh wizard.

If only it were that simple! The leader boards of tournaments around the world would be filled with the names of round-bellied weekend thrashers with low-brow know-how.

When Woosnam won last year's Augusta Masters he had finally become a true golfing superstar. Prior to the thrilling finale last April, the Mighty Atom had been ranked the world's number one, had won more money than he knew what to do with and was favourite to win anywhere he played.

At the time of the victory he was major-title virgin. He had played down the importance of winning at Augusta but the British press claimed his desire was greater than ever before.

A steady 72 opening round put Woosnam in the pack five shots off the pace. The normal gaggle of US pros made the fast start. Lanny Wadkins, Jim Gallagher and Mark McCumber all shot 67.

It was Woosie's middle two rounds of 66 and 67 that sent him into the lead. Tom Watson had shot a pair of 68s to lead after round two, but after round three even he couldn't match the Welshman's birdie attack.

Woosnam's was a lead he would not surrender even though Watson and Jose Maria Olazabal chased him to the very last hole.

At that fateful 18th tee, all three were level. Olazabal (in the group ahead) found a fairway bunker, Watson (playing with the Welshman) drove into the trees. Woosie went on a high, wide and handsome to the left of the fairway but safe and above ground.

So the green jacket passed from Nick Faldo (he finished joint 12th) to Woosnam. It was the fourth straight year a British player had won at Augusta (Lyle, Faldo, Faldo, Woosnam).

What was the key to victory? Woosie's first US win in the tournament prior to Augusta at the USF&G was probably a significant confidence booster.

▲ Ian Woosnam does a bunk

But his own verdict on the win is more enlightening. 'I smoke. I drink. I like a bit of fun. I want to be the best but I'll do it me own little way.' He got drunk and bought a Cessna light aircraft after winning the Masters. Nuff said? ■ John Bramley

Med-life crisis!

THE MEDITERRANEAN is home to what is now one of the world's rarest sea mammals, the monk seal. Only a few hundred monk seals are left in the Med, desperately fighting for their existence in the world's busiest sea.

According to Ashley Bruce, the producer of Mucking Up the Med, the fate of the seal symbolises what man is doing to the Med. The largest inland sea in the world, it takes about 200 years for water from the Med to pass through the straits of Gibraltar (the only opening to the ocean) and renew itself.

But as this investigation shows, the rate at which untreated pollution flows in from the countries on the Mediterranean shore means the sea is choking.

This Discovery Channel documentary reviews how far Mediterranean countries have come in their efforts to cope with the colossal problems caused by such pollution.

It also exposes the destructive effects of the increasing numbers of tourists who descend annually on the Med. The sun-drenched sea attracts more holidaymakers than anywhere else on earth, currently over 100 million a year and an anticipated 250 million in 40 years' time.

Monk seals are just one example of the potential victims of Mediterranean tourism, fishing and pollution

The tragedy is summed up with scenes of monk seals at play, oblivious to the pollutants, being juxtaposed with those of motorboats and crowds of tourists. Pollutants are also shown pouring into the water a few yards away from bathing holidaymakers.

Environmental experts go on record in the programme with their views on the dangers facing the Med and they outline possible solutions. ■

▶▶ Discovery: Mucking Up the Med Tuesday 7th 9.00pm ◀◀

How long will monk seals survive the onslaught of tourism and fishing?

SEAL APPEAL

The World Wide Fund for Nature believes that as few as 300 monk seals survive in the Med today. They are the rarest of all seal species and thought to be one of the 12 most threatened animals in the world.

Tourism is an enemy of these mammals, though pollution, death in gill nets and their ruthless slaughter by fishermen (who see the seals as a threat to their nets and a rival for fish) are the major danger.

Eighty of the 300 seals live in Greek waters but WWF says the Government will not give full protection to the animals' habitat.

WWF has this year started to lobby the Greek authorities and launched a campaign asking the British public to write to the Greek Prime Minister.

Woody's deadly humour

Angelica Houston and Martin Landau in Crimes and Misdemeanors

Crimes and Misdemeanors* is the 19th film written and directed by New York's famous hypochondriac, Woody Allen — and it is his funniest and most pessimistic for years.

Allen assembled a strong cast for the film. Martin Landau does a fine job of discarding the fantasy worlds of Mission Impossible and Space 1999 to play Judah Rosenthal, a successful and wealthy opthalmologist whose professional standing and family are threatened by his distraught mistress.

Anjelica Huston is Dolores, the paramour who will blow the whistle on their affair if she is dumped. The services of a hitman are offered to Landau and, upstanding citizen that he is, he is tempted.

The sub-plot is helped along by Allen playing Cliff Stern, a struggling documentary maker who agrees to make a profile of his appalling and egocentric brother-in-law Lester (Alan Alda), a successful TV sitcom producer.

Mia Farrow, appearing in her 10th film for Allen, is his object of unrequited love, Hally.

Allen as a performer has rarely been funnier and he knocked out some great one-liners for himself in this film. Fired by the big-headed Alda, he asks: 'What's the problem? Has he never been compared to Mussolini before?'

Throwing light on Darkman's revenge

A GANG OF criminals really got under Liam Neeson's skin when the Darkman comic-strip character was brought to screen life in 1990. Neeson plays a scientist who is trying to invent a synthetic skin when the gang burn off his face with acid. The disfigured man clearly has a bone to pick with his tormentors and is able to use his invention in his bid for revenge. It is a hair-raising yarn of thrills and shocks that is told with the speed and economy of a comic strip. ■

Another scrap for metal cop!

ROBOCOP IS BACK. After only a brief respite from dispatching low-life street scum like unsavoury Curtwood Smith in the 1987 smash hit, Peter Weller once more dons the titanium armour to fight an even more deadly foe in Robocop 2.

Costing three times as much as the original, which was a model of low-budget efficiency, the high-voltage sequel returns to the setting of Old Detroit, the crumbling metropolis of the near-future, where the armour-plated-crime-fighter finds himself thrashing metal with a titanic psycho-cyborg named Cain.

Cain's aim is to introduce a devastatingly powerful (and also lethal) designer drug, Nuke, onto the market, and then hold Manson-like sway over the resulting addicts .

Officer Murphy's old partner Lewis (Nancy Allen) is on hand to give backup in the unlikely event of him needing any, while all-powerful Omni Consumer Products mandarin Daniel O'Herlihy (affectionately known as 'The Old Man') keeps things cool and corrupt at the top. Name checks, too, for Patricia Charbonneau, Belinda Bauer and Tom Noonan.

Needless to say, there are noisy sound effects and countless explosions going off, as Robo and Cain meet in a series of show-stopping battles in which thousands of rounds are expended by the super-tech weaponry to which all cyborg fans have become accustomed.

The man responsible for the film's ground-breaking robotic effects is Phil Tippet, well-known for many of the unforgettable creations unveiled in Star Wars. The film also marks the return to feature-film direction of Irvin Kirschner of The Empire Strikes Back fame, and the somewhat heavy-handed proceedings are lightened up with plenty of black humour and a smart script from Frank Miller, author of the seminal comic book Batman: The Dark Knight Returns .

Meanwhile, Robocop 3 returns to the big screen later this year, minus Peter Weller, giving Robert Burke of The Unbelievable Truth fame a chance to don the silver suit.

RELIANT ROBIN?

THE CONSIDERABLE charm and talents of Robin Williams are put at the disposal of Joey O'Brien, the slimeball car salesman he plays in Cadillac Man.

A good line in patter is essential for Joey. He owes money to the mafia and his former wife, is having affairs with two unstable women and also has a falling sales record.

All this pales, however, when a dim-witted cuckolded husband (Tim Robbins) rides his motorbike through the car showroom window, waves his rifle about and demands to know who has been helping themself to his wife Donna (Annabella Sciorra), a secretary at the business.

Adultery with Donna is one entanglement Joey has avoided (his boss is the guilty party), but he takes the blame.

Why? To sacrifice himself for others? Get out of here! He sees talking the madman out of mass murder as the ultimate test of his salesmanship.

The ensuing scenes between Williams and Robbins slip the movie enjoyably into top gear.

Going great guns

Young Guns II is that rare breed of film: a sequel that puts the original in the shade. Young Guns was a violent visit to the Lincoln County War in 1878 New Mexico, when Billy the Kid and other gun-toting 'regulators' found themselves on the losing side. The follow-up film treads the same territory as Sam Peckinpah's Pat Garrett and Billy the Kid, the hunting down and killing of Billy Bonney (Emilio Estevez, pictured left) by the self-righteous victors. Riding alongside Estevez once again are Kiefer Sutherland and Lou Diamond Phillips. This interesting yarn is brilliantly photographed and the action is set to the music of Alan Silvestri and Jon Bon Jovi. ■

THE LAZY MAN'S WAY TO A MILLION

Millionaires are among the most successful people in the world but their success ideas have always up until now been the most closely guarded of all secrets. One thing is for sure however, THEIR HIDDEN SECRETS MAKE THEM MILLIONS!

Two and a half years ago I became friends with a retired self made multi millionaire. He was thirty eight years old and drove a Rolls Royce Bentley Turbo. As a contrast, I was 25, down on my luck, and going nowhere. I was in a hole and financially embarrassed.

Today things have changed. I now own a portfolio of investment properties, drive a BMW Sport and control a group of successful companies. As well as enjoying at least three holidays a year at my own private villa, if I work three days a week then I consider myself busy. In under 3 years I have gone from being nearly broke, to becoming a wealthy man.

WHAT HAPPENED TO CHANGE MY FORTUNE? Let me tell you. When I first met my friend, his success puzzled me because he seemed to spend more time on holiday than he spent at his office. Yet he was making a fortune! Due to his wealth and the fact that I was no threat to him, he agreed to teach me his methods for making money. He showed me a system that he had used for six years. He told me that if I followed his system then I would be GUARANTEED to make a fortune, more money than I had ever dreamt of. It sounded so simple that at first I dismissed it. I thought that if it was that easy then why wasn't everybody doing it? I did nothing, until about a month later when I realised that I still wasn't making any money but I was a month older. I then started to think again about my friend's Rolls Royce, his mansion and his lifestyle. The mere fact that all he was asking me to do was try his system was enough to spark my curiosity.

THE RESULTS WERE AMAZING! Within seventeen days I had made £5,600. The next month I doubled that amount, and the month following that I gave up my full time job because I knew that the money that I had made was obviously no fluke. Now I work one week out of four and live in luxury. I earn more money in a fortnight than I used to earn in a year. When I was asked by an old colleague where I'd come across such wealth, I explained that the system was perfectly legal. I then outlined what he would need to do to try it for himself, bearing in mind he had no business experience whatsoever.

IT WAS INCREDIBLE. He made £3,200 in TEN DAYS and has not looked back.

I then decided to put my system down in print, in an easy to follow, step by step format that would allow anybody who wanted to, a chance to earn a fortune. What do you need? Nothing. I will give you all that you need to succeed. Just learn the system that I'll give you and I GUARANTEE your success. I know you're sceptical but so were the following people before they tried my system. (Original copies of all letters available).

"Seven months ago I sent you a cheque for £19.95 for your system, and in just three weeks I made £6,500. Thank you."

S.R. - London

"A £45,000 thank you for your system - that's how much I've netted using it."

P.S. - Belfast

"I thought that at £19.95 it was nothing more than a shot in the dark and I was fully expecting to send it back for a refund - £19,000 in my first six months says that I was wrong. It's as easy as falling off a log."

R.F. - Tyne & Wear

GUARANTEE

I'm sure like you, the above people were a little hesitant, but I guess that since I guaranteed their success or their money back they had nothing to lose. As you can see they got exactly what they wanted, and for only £19.95 you can have it too. It is a system that could quite easily be worth thousands of pounds to you. It is not so much a success philosophy as a step by step guide to getting rich. I will personally GUARANTEE your success, let me prove it. Try the system out for thirty days and I won't cash your cheque for 30 days AFTER I've sent you my material ! Thats how confident I am. Return it within the thirty days in good condition and I'll return your cheque or money order UNCASHED! If you're still sceptical and you want to be totally on the safe side then POST DATE your cheque for thirty days and that way you totally eliminate your risk altogether. YOU CAN NOT LOSE!

What you do now is entirely up to you, but remember, this is not some phoney GET RICH QUICK gimmick. You will receive a practical system that will earn you a fortune! What you do now could undoubtedly be the most important thing you have ever done in your entire life. Ask yourself: "What do I have to lose?" Even if I'm wrong you've got my money back guarantee, so all you will have lost is a stamp.BUT WHAT IF I'M RIGHT? A month from now you could be nothing more than thirty days older, or you could be earning a fortune!!! It's your choice.

Little BIG Mack

He is small but his movies are big. Macaulay Culkin, aged 11, is a millionaire child star whose earning power dwarfs that of Hollywood's former top tot, Shirley Temple

HAVE YOU EVER had that nagging feeling as you set off on holiday that you have forgotten something?

In this Easter's blockbuster, Home Alone, little Kevin McCallister's mother has that uneasy inkling. Then, during the flight taking the McCallisters to Paris for Christmas, she remembers what it is she has left behind — Kevin!

The forgotten boy, played by the easily overlooked figure of Macaulay Culkin, makes the most of being left at home. He has an ice-cream orgy and generally flouts the rules that killjoy parents are liable to insist on. But when two bumbling burglars set out to ransack the McCallister home, Kevin has a new game to play: Hospitalise the Housebreakers.

This simple film made those grown-up Hollywood executives sit up and take a close interest in their pre-pubescent audience. For the camera took one look at Mack, as Home Alone's diddy star is known, fell in love and sent the 20-Century Fox cash registers into overdrive.

▲ Macaulay Culkin is the home guard against Daniel Stern and Joe Pesci

It would take a child to adequately explain the colossal success that this 1990 movie has been.

Home Alone is simply the biggest box-office comedy of all time. Move over Batman, Jaws, Indiana Jones and the like, the only films to have taken more money are ET and Star Wars.

Home Alone is helped considerably by Joe Pesci, who, as one of the burglars, makes fun of the gangster image he projected in winning a best-supporting actor Oscar for GoodFellas last year.

But the movie's winning ingredient is the innocent charm of Mack, which is much easier to swallow than the precocious cuteness of a Shirley Temple.

Mack's stunned expression in Home Alone when he slaps some aftershave on his cheeks and cries 'Aagh' has become his frequently recycled trademark.

Four-feet four-inches tall and weighing five stones, he has become a giant of a star.

He has his own Saturday morning cartoon series, he has appeared on his pal Michael Jackson's video and Bob Hope's Christmas special, his parents are beseiged by offers to merchandise Macaulay Culkin figurines and clothing, and his fee to appear in Home Alone 2 (which started filming in February) is $5million and five per cent of the gross.

His parents, Pat and Christopher, are trying hard to shield him from the celebrity spotlight. Mack is the third of seven children, three of whom have also made professional acting debuts.

Home Alone was Mack's fifth film but in the year since its release his parents have tried to lower his profile by allowing only his cameo appearance in the current release My Girl (which features his first screen kiss).

He receives no pocket money and only reads articles about himself that his parents pass on to him to ensure that his ego keeps its sense of proportion.

'The best thing you can do for Mack is give him the opportunity to be thought of as an actor, not just a cute kid,' his father has said.

But he shares one feature with his Home Alone character, a talent for practical jokes. While filming My Girl the little actor snared his on-set schoolteacher with double-sided sticky tape on the loo seat! ■

FRIDAYS 10PM

Enigmatic, magnetic, mysterious, unattainable - of all the stars in the Hollywood galaxy, she cornered the market in adjectives of the more elusive kind. At first the studios were at a loss to describe her aloof appeal. She hardly helped matters by shunning publicity.

The press had no choice but to go all Shakespearean and make much ado about nothing - hence she became known as 'The Swedish Sphinx' and 'The Mysterious Stranger'. Over the years her titles became more gushing and fanciful as 'The Divine' begat 'The Dream Princess of Eternity' and 'The Sarah Bernhardt of Films'. Today her magic and mystique is conveyed in a mere two syllables ... Garbo.

For me, she wrote the book on screen presence - one look spoke volumes. Her power was her economy - a glance, a gesture, an intake of breath ... so little said so much. As her career progressed it was a lesson well-applied to her publicity machine.

'Garbo Talks!' was all the posters needed to say when she emerged from silent movies in Anna Christie in 1930. Nine years later, in her penultimate screen appearance, the story on the billboards was equally succinct - 'Garbo Laughs!' - obviously, in its day, a giant leap for movie-kind. 'Ninotchka', showing on Bravo this month, was indeed her first comedy - a chance at last for audiences to enjoy her delicious timing, not to mention the excellent dental work that helped transform a plainly pretty but goofy peasant girl from Stockholm's poorest quarter, into an enduring Hollywood legend. Garbo plays a Russian emissary sent to Paris on government business to sell some crown jewels. She soon falls in love with Paris, a silly hat, and an American playboy - the excellent Melvyn Douglas. Ernst Lubistch's direction is faultless and the script sparkles along (co-written by Billy Wilder).

With Dirk Bogarde in the Ronald Coleman part, as the stoic Sydney Carton, Rank's remake of the Dicken's classic 'A Tale of Two Cities' premieres on Bravo this month. Set in Paris and London during the Reign of Terror, Sir Dirk cuts a swathe through the plot wearing the jauntiest of chapeau's, ably supported by Cecil Parker, a shifty Donald Pleasance and the always amusing Alfie Bass.
Well worth watching for the action sequences alone.

I'm off to France next month for a little sojourn ... I was going to stay with friends in Hollywood, but the place upsets me these days, everyone talks to you as if you're holding an audition. No I prefer being ripped off along the Croissette in Cannes where once they know you're English, the indifference deserves a special Palm d'Or. Meanwhile I'll leave you in the capable hands of my researcher Gary Ross - he's bright and young, but you mustn't hold it against him. Till then, then ...

REMEMBERING THE UNFORGETTABLE...

This month's premiere A Night to Remember tells the story of the sinking of the Titanic-the ship the world had acclaimed as 'unsinkable'.

Actor Laurence Naismith (right) bears a striking resemblance to the real commander of the Titanic, Captain Edward John Smith (left). To this day no-one knows exactly how he died. There have been conflicting reports from many survivors. Some say he stayed on the bridge and went down with the ship. Others say he rescued a child as the ship went down and, after securing the youngster a place on a lifeboat, he swam off into the night to join the toll of 1500 unfortunate souls who lost their lives that night.

Kenneth More gets more-despite pouring a bucket of icy cold water over himself, director Roy Baker decides he doesn't look wet enough to be a Titanic survivor. So, for the sake of authenticity, Kenny gets another bucketful before the camera rolls.

The astounding attention to detail really pays off, here producer William MacQuitty and director Roy Baker examine a scale model of the Titanic in order to work out camera angles.

That old black magic...

Horror films came originally from Germany, where the depressive mood following World War I produced macabre classics like The Cabinet of Dr Caligari and the original Nosferatu.

Hollywood took over in 1930, with Universal's Dracula and a little-known Hungarian actor named Bela Lugosi, followed swiftly by Frankenstein, The Mummy and The Wolfman.

10 years later RKO's Val Lewton produced Cat People, The Body Snatcher and I Walked with a Zombie.

After World War II, little was heard of horror until sci-fi appeared in 1950, but in the early 1960s Roger Corman produced a series of low budget grislies including House of Usher, The Pit and the Pendulum and A Bucket of Blood.

The greatest horror initiative of the decade came from Hammer, a small independent company with studios on the Thames. Hammer remade Dracula, Frankenstein, The Mummy and The Wolfman, which became cult classics.

The studio's popularity spawned imitators, but leading the black magic boom was Tigon Pictures, formed by Tony Tenser in 1966.Tigon specialised in cheap horror movies, usually focusing on the occult, that were even more disturbing than their Hammer inspirations.

Filmed in London in 1967, and based on John Burke's novel, The Sorcerers featured Boris Karloff and Catherine Lacey as ageing scientists who hypnotise Ian Ogilvy into acting out their violent fantasies. It's a first-rate thriller with a terrific twist.

The same year The Blood Beast Terror told of a Victorian entomologist whose gruesome experiments accidentally turn his daughter into a giant death's-head moth with an insatiable craving for human blood.

Loony scientist Robert Flemyng replaced Basil Rathbone, who died before shooting started. Wanda Ventham (best-remembered in The Lotus Eaters) is the 'wer-emoth', whose arthropod garb could start a new fashion, Peter Cushing plays Inspector Quennell and Roy Hudd is along for laughs.

Filmed in the house of W S Gilbert, reputedly haunted since his death by drowning in 1911, The Curse of the Crimson Altar (1968) finds 81-year-old Karloff pontificating from his wheelchair as a tale of black magic, diabolism, torture and blood sacrifice unfolds before him.

Barbara Steele looks great in green paint, blood-red lips and golden ram headgear, but sadly, Karloff caught a chest cold during production that led to his death the following year.

1970's The Blood On Satan's Claw is a gruesome 17th century offering with erotic undertones, that begins when a ploughman unearths a revolting man-beast in his field. Pretty soon the village children form a devil worship cult, using each other as victims of sacrifice. Like all Tigon productions, a truly disturbing period horror, and not for the squeamish.

Despite attracting a cult following equal to that of Hammer, by 1973 Tigon was gone, absorbed into the Laurie Marsh entertainment group. Whether this was a result of its acquiring the Essoldo cinema chain in 1972, ill-advised at a time when cinema audiences were on the decline, is unclear, and the Laurie Marsh Group itself disappeared after 1975.

The movies that remain are, as one critic said, 'a testament to Tigon's crudely exploitative approach to horror'. It's an approach that still satisfies the demands of those who want horror that is kitsch but nevertheless genuinely frightening. ■

The Dan August File

Starring: Burt Reynolds as Dan August, Richard Anderson as Chief Untermyer
Screened: September 1970 to June 1975
Storyline: Dedicated homicide detective Dan August rarely works by the book but always gets his man. Dan grew up in Santa Luisa, California with many of the people he has to deal with, and becomes more involved than the average big-city cop. Dan's boss, Chief Untermyer, believes he spends more time fighting the system than he does fighting crime. August believes he is merely fulfilling his duty to protect the community.
Comments: The action-packed adventures of Dan August only ran for one season, due to mediocre ratings. But when movie success made Burt Reynolds a household celebrity, the series was rerun to record audiences. 'A Quinn Martin production'. ■

▶▶ Bravo: Dan August Saturdays at 7.00pm from 11th April ◀◀

▶▶ Bravo: The Curse of the Crimson Altar Friday 3rd 10.00pm; The Blood Beast Terror Friday 10th 10.00pm; The Blood on Satan's Claw Friday 17th 10.00pm; The Sorcerers Friday 24th 10.00pm ◀◀

Today's Choice

9.15pm Bravo. Contraband. Conrad Veidt and Valerie Hobson, memorable as the romantic team in The Spy in Black, reunite in this enjoyable tongue-in-cheek thriller. Set in wartime London the film tells of how a Danish merchant captain and a young woman expose a gang of German spies operating from a warehouse. Highlights include a fiery performance from Veidt, who had come a long way from Robert Weine's 1919 expressionist masterpiece The Cabinet of Dr Caligari, and a famous chase scene through a storeroom crammed with busts of former Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain after his fall from grace.

Today's Choice

8.00pm Sky Movies Plus. In The Line of Duty: Mob Justice. The fourth in a series of authentic law enforcement action-dramas. When one of his best agents is killed during an undercover operation, Assistant US Attorney Charles Rose (Silence of the Lambs Ted Levine) organises a nationwide manhunt for the killer. Mob-connected drug dealer Gus Farace (Tony Danza). Desperate to take him alive in order to extract vital information regarding Mafia activities, Rose's team must get to Farace before the mob's hitmen. Also starring Samuel Jackson whose performance was one of the highlights of Spike Lee's Jungle Fever.

Today's Choice

5.00pm The Discovery Channel. Beats of the Heart: Gipsy Music. A series which examines the importance of popular music, whether in the remote provinces of Thailand or the most cosmopolitan of cities. It is the ''music of the people', and tells us much about what is happening to a nation's heritage or way of life. The ''Gitano' communities dance wildly in the caves which they have inhabited for centuries. Their ancient links with Indian ancestors can be seen in the Flamenco, a wild expression of their Romany history.

Today's Choice

12.20am The Movie Channel. Let's Scare Jessica to Death. An excellent under-rated shocker about a young woman (Zohra Lampert) who, on her release from a mental hospital, moves into a secluded Connecticut country home with her husband. It's not long before she begins to suspect she is going crazy again as a series of bizarre occurrences lead her to believe that a female guest is actually a vampire. Also featuring Burton Heyman, Kevin O'Connor, Gretchen Corbett and Mairi-Claire Costello.

Today's Choice

5.30pm Screensport. US Men's Pro Ski Tour. Known for its fast, dual format racing, the Pro Ski Tour lures ski professionals from around the world. Skiers race against the clock to qualify for the dual events. From then on it's head-to-head competition with the winner being decided in the final run of the day.The defending Champion is Bernhard Knauss, who closed out the 1991 season with a long list of titles including champion in both Slalom and Giant Slalom, but there are many challengers for his title on this year's circuit. Today's Nuprin Cup Giant Slalom comes from Keystone, Colorado..

Today's Choice

12.00midnight Sky Movies. Nightbreed. An ambitious monster movie from British horror author Clive Barker, based on his own novella Cabal. Convinced by psychological shrink Dr Dekker that he is the one responsible for a multitude of brutal murders, Boone flees his old life to take sanctuary in Midian, a cemetery town inhabited by shape-shifting monsters known as the Nightbreed. Once there, Boone completes his transformation into Cabal, the beast that has long lurked inside him and prepares to defend the Nightbreed's age-old home from the outside world.

Today's Choice

8.00pm The Discovery Channel. American Caesar: I Shall Return. Presented by veteran film actor and director John Huston, this 10-part series follows the career of America's most controversial soldier - General Douglas MacArthur. Tonight's episode sees him as a forgotten hero, obsessed with glory on one hand, dominated by his mother 'Pinky' on the other. Forced to abandon his beloved Phillipines after the Japanese invasion of 1941, he made the pledge that was to make him a legend, even in defeat; 'I shall return'.

Today's Choice

10.00pm Bravo. The Blood Beast Terror. Robert Flemyng stars as a Victorian entomologist who changes human beings into giant death's head moths that need human blood to survive. Sounds wacky, doesn't it. Not only that, he actually works the transformation on his daughter Wanda Ventham, best remembered opposite Ian Hendry in the long running TV series The Lotus Eaters. Unfortunately she's not willing to settle merely for human blood, but wants her father to create a mate for her as well. It's all go in the world of entomology.

10.05pm The Movie Channel. Henry and June. Director Philip Kaufman's recreation of 1930s Paris, the setting for the literary love affair between diarist Anais Nin (portrayed by Portuguese newcomer Maria De Madeiros) and penniless author Henry Miller (Fred ward). Their relationship, a sensual odyssey of erotic exploration and personal liberation that remained a secret for 50 years, became complicated by their mutual attraction to June (Uma Thurman), Miller's beautiful and enigmatic young wife. A profound and moving insight into the way people use one another to better understand their own souls.

Today's Choice

8.00pm Bravo. Mad Love. 'Mr Lorre cuts deeply into the darkness of the morbid brain' said the New York Times of this absurd but nevertheless chilling offering from director Karl Freund, and it was surely right. It tells of a mad doctor who grafts the hands of a murderer onto a pianist who has lost his own hands in an accident. The fact that he is in love with the pianist's wife doesn't really help to explain things, but Lorre's performance is a rave anyway. Not to be confused with The Beast With Five Fingers (1946) which also features Peter Lorre, a famous pianist and a severed hand. A little more mezzo forte, please!

Today's Choice

11.00pm The Discovery Channel. Gentleman Jimmy. In 1963 British Civil Servant Jimmy Moxon became the first white man to become an African tribal chief. Dressed in traditional robes and bearing a gold machete, he was carried aloft on the ceremonial throne of the Akwapim tribe. The Akwapim believe that their chief represents the memory of their ancestors, in Jimmy Moxon's case the 'incarnation' of all the white men who had died across the land of Ghana over the past five centuries. His personification of these 'ancestors' is shown here with rare and exceptional film from the archives.

Today's Choice

8.00pm Sky One. The Immigrants: Part II. The future is full of promise for Joseph and Anna Lavetta as they leave Italy and make the hazardous journey to America to start a new life. They are just two of the millions of immigrants who land on American soil in the early part of the 20th century to seek their fortunes in the developing country. Starring Stephen Mack, Sharon Cagney and Lacey Gless, Richard Anderson, Roddy McDowall and Pernell Roberts, remembered by some as Adam Cartwright from those far-off Bonanza days.

Today's Choice

12.30pm Screensport. Forte Snooker League. A unique feature of the Matchroom League has been the relegation system. At the end of the season the bottom two players are relegated, but with the increase in participants, promoter Barry Hearn has decided to put more pressure on the players, and the bottom four will not be required for the 1993 Forte Hotels Matchroom League. The League was won by Steve Davis from 1987 to 1990, but last year's title was claimed for the first time by Stephen Hendry. Tonight: Steve Davis vs Mike Hallett from Thornaby Pavilion, Stockton on Tees.

Today's Choice

3.25pm Bravo. Ninotchka. A delightful romantic comedy with hilarious and farcical comparisons between the Russian and Capitalist systems. Greta Garbo stars in her first comedy as a Russian comrade who is sent to Paris on government business to sell some crown jewels, but becomes side-tracked when she meets American playboy Melvyn Douglas who is also involved in the deal. Watch out for sometime vampire Bela Lugosi.

Today's Choice

10.05pm The Discovery Channel. Beats of the Heart: The Two Faces of Thailand. The second in the series that examines the importance of popular music, whether from the remote provinces of Thailand or the most cosmopolitan modern cites. King Bhumibol in dark glasses and ceremonial uniform symbolises the split of Thai culture between traditional and modern. A spiritual ceremony is captured on film where a medium awakens the spirits with a dance.

Today's Choice

8.15pm The Movie Channel. Crimes and Misdemeanours. Martin Landau (Space 1999) plays Judah, a prominent opthalmologist forced to take extreme action when his mistress Dolores (Anjelica Huston) threatens to reveal their affair to his wife Miriam (Claire Bloom). When she threatens to destroy his reputation further by exposing his previous financial improprieties, Judah turns to his criminally-connected brother-in-law Jack for some "unorthodox' advice. The simple structure of Woody Allen's film allows the thematically similar tales of moral transgression to run together.

Today's Choice

8.00pm HVC. Magic Sticks. Felix, an out-of-work drummer living in New York, discovers a pair of drumsticks which have the power to make people dance spontaneously to any beat he lays down. But it is not long before his dream girl Shirley is kidnapped by gangsters who want to use his drumming in robbing Tiffany's famous store. Can he rescue his girl and still make the gig on time? Perhaps stars George Kranz, Kelly Curtis and Chico Hamilton have the answer.

Today's Choice

9.45pm Bravo. Lisbon. Ray Milland first tried his hand at directing in 1955 with A Man Alone. A year later he was at it again, this time with an adventure drama about an international crook who hires a mercenary to act as the go-between in a kidnapping. Claude Rains plays the master criminal with a special affection for birds, while Ray Milland spends most of his time flitting between Maureen O'Hara and Yvonne Furneaux while shooting crooks in the stomach with a flare pistol.

Today's Choice

8.15pm The Movie Channel. The King of Comedy. Director Martin Scorsese's unsettling and blackly comic portrayal of madness and obsession. Robert De Niro is Rupert Pupkin, an aspiring comedian so desperate to get a spot on his hero Jerry Langford's chat show that he conspires to kidnap the arrogant host. Jerry Lewis is great playing against type as the humourless, self-important Langford, and De Niro has rarely been better. Watch out for Tony Randall of The Odd Couple fame.

Today's Choice

5.00pm The Discovery Channel. The Black Music of Brazil. Another episode in the series that examines the importance of popular music in telling us about what is happening to a nation's heritage or way of life. In the coastal villages the powerful links with Brazil's African past continue in black African rhythms, like the unstoppable Samba, and the Candomble, a religion which unifies a community torn apart by slavery and migration to the cities.

6.00pm Screensport. World League of Football. 1992 is the second year of the World League of American Football. The 10 team league bridges the Atlantic with 3 teams based in Europe, 6 in the United States and 1 in Canada. The American teams are expected to be more competitive in 1992, and may feature a number of players currently active in the NFL. Among early candidates for success are the Frankfurt Galaxy and the New York/New Jersey Knights. The 10 game regular season will finish with the second world bowl in Montreal. Tonight's game features Sacramento Surge at London Monarchs live.

Today's Choice

10.00pm HVC. Fresh Kill. Would-be actor Alan Chester finds that his life takes a turn for the worse when he meets not-so-innocent Leona Alexander. While attempting to defend her peaceably from two gang members, he accidentally kills one and is then astounded to discover that Leona has polished off the other one with a meat cleaver! The gang sets out for revenge and the couple is forced to use their natural instincts to survive. Starring Flint Keller and the enigmatic Tricia Parks.

5.30pm The Discovery Channel. The Stars: A Star is Born. Did you know that the Sun consumes four million tons of itself every second, has done so for the last five billion years and will do so for the next five billion? Or that the Earth fits into the Sun one million times? In this 6-part series astronomer Heather Couper tells us all this and more about our galaxy using the latest hi-tech equipment and computer graphics to show us what we might see on a journey through the Universe.

8.00pm Sky Movies Plus. Love Hurts. Bristling with resentment for one another, the members of the Weaver clan find themselves reunited for a wedding. With the tension between father Boomer (John Mahoney) and adulterous son Paul (Jeff Daniels) particularly taut, the stage is set for an emotionally fraught day as old wounds are reopened, hatchets are buried and some tentative reconcilliations are achieved. Also starring Cloris Leachman, long-remembered for her Oscar-winning role in Peter Bogdanovich's The Last Picture Show.

Today's Choice

8.00pm The Discovery Channel. All The President's Women. What is it like to be one of President George Bush's political advisors - and female? This film goes into the White House to draw some remarkably frank admissions from its five most powerful women. How do they cope with traditional sexist attitudes, and how do they juggle their high-pressure careers with family life? The ladies interviewed are US Secretary of Labour Lynne Martin, Bush Deputy Liaison Bobby Kilberg, Foreign Affairs Spokeswoman Margaret Tutwiler, Cabinet Secretary Ede Holiday and Mary Matalin, head of Bush's re-election campaign.

THE RISE AND FALL OF MIKE TYSON

MIKE TYSON emerged from the ghetto to win sport's richest prize, the Heavyweight Championship of the World. Yet just six years later his career and reputation were in ruins, and Tyson himself was a convicted rapist.

The Mike Tyson Story charts the Iron Man's achievements, from his troubled childhood to his historic first victory over Trevor Berbick in 1986, and finally to his controversial defeat at the hands of James 'Buster' Douglas in 1990.

That was the year that marked the start of a disastrous turn of events outside the ring. His very public divorce from actress Robin Givens was followed by a lawsuit filed against him by Miss Black America contestant Desiree Washington, who testified that he had raped her in his Indianapolis hotel room. He was subsequently found guilty.

This compelling 90-minute documentary uses rare film footage from the Bill Cayton boxing library in New York to examine the life and times of the man who was to become the youngest-ever heavyweight champion in boxing history. ■

The Enchanted Crystal Fairy

The magical power of clear quartz.
The cool brilliance of lead crystal.
The delicacy of fine porcelain.
By fantasy artist Greg Hildebrandt.

Fairies possess a power unknown to mere mortals. A power they acquire when they gaze intently at an object of infinite beauty and radiance, absorbing its magic.

It is this magical moment that is captured in art by the internationally renowned master of fantasy, Greg Hildebrandt, in his dazzling new work.

The enchanted fairy herself is delicately sculptured in fine bisque porcelain and subtly decorated by hand. Her glazed porcelain wings billow in a gossamer sweep of iridescence. In her hands, the very source of her being...the magic crystal, believed to hold astounding powers.

The fiery brilliance of crystal ice.

Poised on a mount of hand-polished lead crystal, the luminous fairy gazes into her magic quartz. Priced at £145 payable in convenient monthly instalments. An heirloom work of art to possess for all time – exclusively from Franklin Mint.

Actual size: approximately 6" in height

©1992 Franklin Mint Limited. Bromley Road, London SE6 2XG. Company registered in England no. 357382.

Her delicate porcelain face is beautifully hand-painted. In her hands, she holds the magic crystal.
